

Regina Public School Teachers' Association Policy

“Honoraria”

Belief:

- a) The RPSTA believes that from time to time it may be appropriate to provide honoraria to individuals for services rendered.

Regulations:

- a) Any committee of the RPSTA may seek an honorarium for payment to person(s) rendering service to members of the RPSTA.
- b) Any Committee chair may in writing make a request of the Executive for consideration of payment to an(y) individual.
- c) The request must give supporting information as to why the honorarium should be paid.
- d) Any requested honorarium must be approved by the RPSTA Executive before payment can be made.
- e) Approval of an honorarium for one person or in one year does not mean that the honorarium is automatic for that person each or every year.
- f) Approval of an honorarium in a specific amount for one person does not mean that the honorarium, if given again in another year must be the same amount.
