

Regina Public School Teachers Association

Policy: 3.2 Associate (Affiliate) Schools

Beliefs:

Every teacher who is under contract to a board of education, a conseil scolaire or the governing body of an independent school is a member of the local association representing members in that jurisdiction. (STF Bylaw 4.3.1)

Teachers of schools affiliated with Regina Public School Division #4 are considered members of the RPSTA.

Local associations may levy fees upon their members to support the work of the local association.

Regulations:

1. All associate school teachers are afforded the same rights and privileges as any other member under the RPSTA Constitution.
2. Associate schools, are schools determined by the Regina Public School Board to be affiliated with Regina Public School Division #4.
