Why you are running for the position?

- I listen to colleagues and translate what I hear into action. I do not shy away from asking questions.
- I look at drivers of issues and enact solutions: proactive, progressive and professional.
- I appreciate our hardworking members and will continue building an informed and active membership. I value the energy of RPSTA representatives and endeavor to run meetings efficiently.
- I work towards social justice for our students and teachers.

If elected, I will focus on these areas:

- Mental Health and safe working environments
- Challenges PreK-12 teachers face with preparation time, teacher transfers, self-directed professional development and more
- Inclusion of diverse leadership at all levels of the organization
- Provide substitute teachers and new teachers with adequate supports
- Solutions to address workload intensification for classroom teachers and administrators
