"Regina Teachers' Convention Attendance"

Regina Teacher's Convention is both an STF and an RPSTA professional development day devoted to issues relevant to teachers and their professional bodies.

Beliefs:

1. The RPSTA believes that it is every teachers' professional duty and within our collective interests to attend the annual Regina Teachers' Convention.
2. Substitute teachers who are not employed on convention day are welcome, but not required to attend.
3. Teachers shall make every effort to avoid planning extracurricular activities on convention day.

Regulations:

1. All leaves from Regina Teachers' Convention must be applied for using the appropriate application procedures and approved through Human Resources.
2. Failure to attend the Regina Teachers' Convention may result in the loss of pay for that day.
